

Cecil Community Centre is holding a mid-term appointment process to fill one current vacancy on the Board of Management

Cecil Community Centre is a not-for-profit, multi-service neighbourhood centre that offers a broad range of recreational, educational, social, cultural and capacity-building programs to local area residents. For almost 40 years, the Centre has played a vital role in the lives of community members of all ages. Our centre provides programs and services for children, youth, adults and seniors. Programs include a Family Resource Program, Community Drop-in, Homework Club, English as a Second Language (ESL), Tutoring Program, Free Clothing Project, Youth Program, and Sunday Children's Program.

The Centre partners with a variety of community organizations to provide services to the community, (e.g. seniors' health and fitness classes, English language instruction for newcomers, and tax clinics for people who are low-income). The Centre is an accessible, multi-functional facility that provides program and activity spaces to the community at large.

Cecil Community Centre's City Board of Management consists of 11 elected Board Members and the City Councillor for Ward 20. Qualified candidates may be approved to the Board of Management. As per Cecil Community Centre's Constitution, the Board may be composed of up to five Board Members who live outside of the Centre's catchment area, and six Board Members (the majority) must reside within the Centre's catchment area.

Board of Management positions for Cecil Community Centre are appointed by the Toronto and East York Community Council.

Cecil Community Centre is an agency of the City of Toronto and one of the Association of Community Centres. The Association of Community Centres (AOCCs) is comprised of 10 volunteer board-run multi-purpose facilities providing a broad range of community, recreation and social service programs to residents in the local community.

Board of Management Membership Vacancy

The Cecil Community Centre Board of Management is currently seeking a candidate for a two-year term position (ending October 2018), who possesses a robust mix of skills, knowledge and experience, and reflects the diversity of the community that we work with.

Board Member Expectations

Board members are expected to commit the necessary time to fulfill their duties as a Board member, including attending monthly board meetings, the Annual General Meeting and other special meetings; participating in a board committee (Finance, Fundraising, and Governance).

- Board meetings (typically 10 per year), the Annual General Meeting (AGM), and any committee meetings required take place in the College/Spadina area of Toronto.
- Meetings and preparation time is about 4 hours per month plus any committee activities.
- Directors are expected to be properly prepared for meetings by reviewing all board materials distributed in advance.

What We Can Offer You

- Opportunity to give back to your community
- Experience working on a not for profit governance Board
- Opportunities to learn about and contribute to the social development of the College/Spadina neighbourhood and the City of Toronto-at-large
- Effective use of your expertise and experience
- Networking possibilities

Board Member Eligibility Requirements

We are particularly seeking a candidate who lives in the Centre's catchment area with the following skills:

- Legal
- Fundraising
- Marketing and Communications

Candidates must meet the following requirements:

- be over the age of 18
- be a resident of the City of Toronto
- not be in a restricted category as defined in the Public Appointments Policy

Following appointment, Cecil Community Centre will also require the following from the successful candidate:

- be a member of Cecil Community Centre
- provide signature declaring full disclosure of conflict of interest, and declaring their understanding and commitment to fulfill their role as a Board Member (Declaration Package)
- a copy of your current resume or curriculum vitae
- a short biography that will be published on the Cecil Community Centre web site

How to apply: If you are interested in this volunteer opportunity, please submit a copy of your current resume to Danny Anckle, Executive Director, danny@cecilcommunitycentre.ca

Deadline: Please submit your application by Monday, March 20, 2017

Please visit our website using the link below for more information about Cecil Community Centre:

<http://cecilcommunitycentre.ca/>

Cecil Community Centre is committed to creating equal opportunities for all. We will not discriminate against any employee, participant or volunteer because of race, ethnicity, religion, national origin, gender, physical or mental disability, or age. We are committed to providing accommodations for people with disabilities in accordance with provincial legislation, and strongly encourage individuals from equity seeking groups to apply.